Findlay Galleries New York is pleased to present the exhibition Summer Discoveries: From the Garden. The exhibition showcases a captivating collection of artworks inspired by the intricate forms and vibrant colors found in nature. This collection features a diverse array of works by both established and contemporary artists, each uniquely interpreting the organic beauty of gardens and natural landscapes. From lush floral compositions to abstract representations of botanical elements, the artworks invite viewers to explore the interplay between art and the environment, celebrating the profound influence that the natural world has on creative expression.
